③ FREE JAG LAWYERS

If Service-Related-Disabled, or Retired from Service
Always Call first to be Sure you Qualify

“Since resources for retirees and disabled veterans change, they are given at the discretion of the base Sargeant, so be polite, persistent, and patient when asking for help.”

Col. Michael J. McKenna (R)
Former JAG Lawyer

JAG (Judge Advocate General) Corps attorneys and paralegals provide legal advice and service to America's past, present and future warriors and dependents. They will advise you, make documents, but will not attend court in person.

They help with many military and civilian issues, from SCRA (Servicemembers' Civil Relief Act), USERRA (Uniformed Service Employment and Reemployment Rights Act), to landlord-tenant, family disputes, wills, and more.

Ask A.I.

ChatGPT, Claude, Gemini, Grok, Copilot, and Perplexity do not know all laws, nor can they legally reason accurately. If they do not know something, they pretend to. So, if you use them, always confirm ideas independently. If that is always done carefully, you can use AI to a point, and not be abused by it.
